

Respect in School Certificate

Alberta

I have a legal and moral obligation to act if I see or suspect maltreatment.

Positive power helps young people grow and learn in an encouraging, supportive environment.

Over half of bullied children do not report being bullied to a teacher.

A crucial step in preventing maltreatment is promoting a culture that empowers the bystander and turns passive bystanders into “upstanders”.

Confronting racism and discrimination honestly, starts by looking inward.

Shelley Odishaw

ABED-10245951-1-G9N

Certified on

September 08, 2020